Dear Lloyd: Hello Lloyd - Det.
How ever did you land there? I am even surprised to know where you landed? We sure are all fine I hope you, rec'd all of our letters OK. I guess the two quarts will be old enough when you get home on your furlough. I'd thought it would of bin sooner but one can't just get up & go. So I guess the quarts will be that much better anyway. China is sure getting to be a big girl alright. She skink all over everything now. Dorothy is fine now. We are going to see old doc again tho. You know, the Easter Card? Well I guess you can guess the rest. I hope you are home by that time if so, I'll try to have another quart too. or we will have a good time.

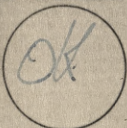

We want to know if you had meet your Brown eyed gal there yet. You know who wants to know I don't have to tell you I guess. We hope you are not too busy to write too see. We sure missed your reg' mail. I sure hope you rec'd all of ours too. I've got lots of wood ahead now. & more coming for the winter so please answer soon & you will sure hear from us to. You pals forever

Dot China Oscar.

Dear Lloyd
Well bud I assume that at least you get your overseas duty. - Wasn't it a release or overseas duty you wanted? This being my first V mail I am beginning to wonder if there will be space enough to write all the available news. I could ask a million questions as to where you are, what the duties are etc, but censorship will probably prohibit most of the news. I got a hunch you may be on a spaghetti diet by the time you get this.

Today being Sunday usins are going out to Beverly Hills to visit the Long Sisters - do you remember Lavonne Long the one whom we had dinner with at the restaurant in Bev. Hills. - Well she has a sister with whom she lives and they have invited the family out to dinner.

At Vetter we are still trying to turn out our pursuit plane, God what a headache. It flies high and fast but something goes wrong on every trip. Repair & more repairs. I sure hope it sets the word afire something like the P-38.

Well in closing the wife and children are in fine shape and wish to be remembered to you. Write as soon as you can and give all the details that are permitted.
Sincerely Yours. - Mel.

Dear Lloyd,

Never have I received a letter which gave me such a surprise as yours did, telling of your arrival in Africa. How you get around! No wonder we didn't hear from you for such a long time. Have you received all the letters I wrote in the meantime. They probably arrived (or will arrive) at one time. Since the censor allowed you to say that you are in Africa, maybe you can tell where you are. If so, it will make it far more interesting in reading the newspapers and listening to news reports on the radio. I will be on the look-out for items of news in your locality.

What I told you when you were in Vancouver still goes while you are in Africa — do all the sight-seeing you possibly can. If your buddies aren't interested in going with you — go by yourself. You will probably never see Africa again (by the time the war is over you may not want to), so get around as much as you can. I saw some snapshots recently of the pyramids showing the street cars running out to them. I had always thought they were way out in the desert. If you are in that part of Africa be sure and see them. Write soon.

Sincerely Clyde

Dear Clyde

The magazines arrived yesterday and I am enjoying them very much. With a paper shortage on I don't see how Trains can keep on using such good paper. I hope they keep it up so that type of paper gives good clear pictures and I sure go for them.

A total stranger came up to me while I was reading Trains and wanted to know how I could get it while he has had a subscription in for over six months and hasn't received a copy. I told him he could have my copies when I was finished with them.

You will note a change in my address. I saw a USO stage show the other night. It was a play called Norm Service and was pretty good. There were two American girls in the play and they were pure nice to look at.

Thanks again for the magazines and write when you can.

Lloyd
